Fundraising in Church

From coffee mornings to barn dances – we’ve got fantastic ideas for church fundraising.

Where else are you going to find caring, generous, like-minded folk like yourself if not in your local church congregation?

Church is the place to turn a great idea into a great fundraising day for everyone – so let your imagination and your expectations run wild. A bit of organisation and community spirit is just what fundraising needs.

Fundraising should be fun and there’s no doubt that with all those willing helpers and a great cause, you and your congregation can have a lot of fun whilst raising valuable funds to support children and young people in local communities across the UK now, tomorrow and every day.

If your church has a bell tower, why not have a sponsored bell-ringing?

Quote from a Methodist support group:

Most things in life are always changing but some things remain constant. There always has been hungry and abused children and they need our help and friendship as much today as at any time in the past. That is why I always have and always will support Action for Children.

Here’s a few ideas to get your fundraising underway…

Globe-trotters Coffee Morning

Coffee mornings have stepped up a gear since the high street became swamped with mochaccinos. So move up a gear and ask guests to bring along their favourite blends for a coffee-tasting session. Add some Italian biscuits and you’ve got a truly European coffee morning – with a nice big donation box by the door.

Grab those walking boots

Why not organise a sponsored walk one Sunday after church and take part in our Step Out for Children Sponsored Walk series. If you don’t fancy organising your own, why not join one of our other many walks taking place throughout the year.

Everyone loves a fete

It doesn’t matter if your congregation lives in the middle of a city, you can always find a little area of green. With homemade bunting, coconut shies, apple bobbing and pin the tail on the donkey, you can turn any garden or park into a fabulous fundraising fete.

Charity begins at home

Ask members of the congregation to take a collection box home and in a year’s time, they can bring it back for you to count.

Ye-haa!

Hold a barn dance in the church hall.
